

STUDENT NEWS

- If you are interested in mystery novels, or meeting new authors stop by the library to meet Sheryl Scarborough, author of the novel, "To Catch A Killer." She will be here Monday, May 6th during 5th period. Barnes and Noble will be selling copies at the event.
- Get ready to take a trip to the Islands of Ayala, this week on Friday, March 17th for our upcoming rally!

SENIOR NEWS

- Where will you be going to college next year? Please stop by the counseling office and let the counselor's know where you have been accepted. There are small cards on the counter to fill out.
- The Senior Class song will be "Good Life" by One Republic. Go to Mrs. King's room, or see any of your class officers for information on singing it at graduation.
- If you failed a course and need to attend summer school, please see your counselor as soon as possible to register. The deadline is Friday, March 17th.

CLUB NEWS

- Come and support Ayala FBLA this Friday, March 17th from 3 – 6 PM at Chipotle as they gear up for their state competitions. You can find a flyer on the Instagram @ayalafbla, or with one of the officers!
- Come to the library stage today to celebrate the Make A Wish's annual Pi Day! To pie your favorite teachers come by pies filled with whipped cream for $2 each, all proceeds going to grant a wish. We hope to see you there!
- Check out Key Club's Fluff Ice Fundraiser Food Truck after school at the tennis courts tomorrow !

CAREER CENTER NEWS

- The Mt. Sac Assessment Days are March 9, 16 and the 21st. See Mrs. Stewart to sign-up.
- College and Career Day will be today from 8:00 AM to lunch, with over 40 college and career representatives in the MPR.
- A Representative from the US Air Force ROTC will be on campus March 20th. Sign up now!
- Registration has now begun for Fall ROP Classes, for a great way to earn elective credits!