

The following work is intended to give us a head start. We have a lot of material to cover next year so please be diligent in your studies. I will check my email occasionally so please email me if you have questions. THIS WORK SHOULD ALL

Chapter 1: The Creation of American Society, 1450-1763

1) Read and Outline (traditional-check online for examples) the entire chapter.

* This all needs to be hand written in a large history notebook. Feel free to highlight, underline, etc. to help you be better organized.

SAMPLE:

I. Native American Societies (red heading)

A. The First Americans

1.

2. Etc., etc.

B. The Mayas and the Aztecs

C. The Indians of the North

II. Europe Encounters Africa and the Americas (red heading)

*Each blue heading is a letter

III. The Protestant Reformation and the Rise of England (red heading)

*Each blue heading is a letter

*After each section (red), subheading (blue), and examples (black) number your notes. You should have a minimum of 2-3 pages/section. Quality matters so be thoughtful.

*You will typically have 4-5 days to do the above assignment for each chapter and is to be turned in prior to lecture. Work should be spaced out, don't do it all at once You will take notes from lecture onto your own outline.

* I recommend you read and take notes at the same time. It may seem to take longer but the info is fresher in your mind. Once school starts try not to do more than one section a day.

2) After each section (red heading) answer the questions indicated by the arrows on a separate

-Include the Chapter Review Questions from the very end of the Chapter

-To

Complete all Primary Source Analysis Questions

-Maize for Blankets (pg. 10)

-The Customs of the Natchez (pg. 13)

-The Spanish Conquest of Mexico (pgs. 26-27)

*Please type your responses (Times New Roman, 12 pt. font). For each answer you should be responding in 2-3 sentences.