Purpose of the Hall of Fame: The purpose of the Chino Valley Unified School District (CVUSD) Richard Gird Educational Hall of Fame is to recognize distinguished CVUSD graduates, employees, and major contributors for their individual contributions in scholarship, athletics, Associated Student Body (ASB) activities, career, community service, and/or society as a whole to the CVUSD community. The honor of being elected to the CVUSD Richard Gird Educational Hall of Fame represents individuals who, through their individual actions, contributed to the established vision of the District.

Alumni Eligibility Criteria: Student athletes, scholars or ASB activity participants become eligible for nomination ten (10) years after graduating from any CVUSD school.

- Alumni must have earned individual recognition at a District school by their scholastic achievements, athletic accomplishments, ASB activities, or community service.
- Alumni must have earned individual recognition after graduation by their postsecondary scholastic achievement, athletic accomplishments, career/professional accomplishments, military service, or community service.
- Alumni must have led an exemplary life of community service and good character must have followed the student after graduation.
