

Mock accident a serious reminder to students about driving under the influence

Chino High students, Chino Valley firefighters, Chino Police officers and other first responders play out a mock accident scene near Chino High to emphasize the dangers of driving under the influence.

The Every 15 Minutes program, shown to Chino High juniors and seniors, will continue Thursday morning with a mock memorial for students who “died” in the crash. The special assembly will be held in the school gym.

Every 15 minutes also includes persons portraying grieving parents and friends. A student portraying the Grim Reaper looks on during the event.

A Chino Valley Firefighter checks the pulse of a "victim" of the car crash.

A Chino Police officer conducts a sobriety test on a student suspected of driving under the influence.

The body of a victim of the mock car crash is covered as firefighters work to free a victim trapped in a car.
