

Chino High Band Director Doug Bowden (right) directs the school's Wind Ensemble at a regional competition on May 12 in Ontario.

Chino High Wind Ensemble earns 'Superior Rating'

Congratulations to the Chino High Band Wind Ensemble for achieving a unanimous Superior Rating from judges at a regional competition on May 12 at Colony High School in Ontario.

This is the 16th time Chino High's Wind Ensemble has received a Superior Rating or higher, Band Director Doug Bowden said.

The public can see the Wind Ensemble and other Chino High Band groups in action at the Chino High Music Department's Closing Concert, 7:00 p.m. Tuesday, May 16 in the Chino High Gym, 5472 Park Place.

Chino High Wind Ensemble members Brian Garcia (left) and Heber Covarrubias play the clarinet during the competition.

Chino High Wind Ensemble member Shilo Rojas (left) and Chino High Band Director Doug Bowden celebrate the ensemble's Superior Rating.

Chino High Band Director Doug Bowden (center) is surrounded by seniors (from left) Anjana Renteria, Bryanna Ibarra, Cindy Lopez, and Christopher Brydges, who play the clarinet in the Chino High Wind Ensemble. The photo was taken at a regional competition in Ontario.