

Los Serranos Country Club's Kramer family donates money to CVUSD golf, tennis

The Jack Kramer Family Trust donated $2,000 each to Ayala, Chino, Chino Hills, and Don Lugo high schools for their golf and tennis programs at a reception June 4, at Los Serranos Country Club in Chino Hills.

Summer Moore, a representative of the California Community Foundation -- an arm of the family trust -- presented checks to Chino Hills High head golf coach John Gottbrecht, Chino High athletic director and tennis coach Michael Hinkle, Ayala High athletic director Warren Reed, and Don Lugo High golf coach Rick Clark.

Among others in attendance were Mr. Kramer's son, David Kramer, executive director of the country club; family member Joanna Kramer, executive assistant of the country club; Chino Valley Unified School District Superintendent (CVUSD) Wayne Joseph; CVUSD board member James Na; Chino High Principal Felix Melendez; Chino Hills High Principal Isabel Brenes; and Tammy Johnson, donor relations officer of California Community Foundation.

The Jack Kramer Family Trust also donated funds to the golf and tennis programs in the 2013/2014 school year.

"The benevolence of the Kramer family is heartening and heartwarming," Mr. Joseph said. "Not every community pitches in like this, but we have that in the Chino Valley."
