

You are invited to attend the

"STRUGGLING WRITERS" PARENT WORKSHOP

A Three Week Series for K-12 Parents

Family Engagement
Center
Adult School, Room 25
12970 Third St.
Chino, CA 91710

TUESDAYS

MARCH 1, 8, 22
from 8:30am -10:30am

Is your child having a hard time with learning how to write, writing conventions and grammar, writing four-five paragraph essays, or just writing assignments for school? This is the workshop geared for you! Come and learn some "at home support" that you can provide for your child in the area of writing. We will also discuss writing standards and expectations by grade level spans, writing for the standardized CA tests, and how to motivate your reluctant or remedial writer-child.

The three week series will be provided by Carol Sweat, Reading Specialist and Parent, School, Community Specialist at the Family Engagement Center, Adult School, Room 25. Carol has been a Reading Specialist for more than 30 years and brings to the workshops a highly developed set of skills in the area of teaching children to write. Register today!
